Today: "Who Is My Neighbor? Keeping the Main Thing the Main Thing" • Mark 12:28-34; Isaiah 58:1-12; James 2:1-8 • "Who is my neighbor? The people Jesus loves." We've seen that means all people. Our enemies. Our friends. The unlovable. Those who think differently. The immoral. The foreigner. The person next door. The unwelcome. The least of these. Jesus died for all, demonstrating God's most remarkable grace. Jesus challenges us and invites us to follow Him in showing others this love. Today as we follow Jesus, we have a reminder to keep the main thing the main thing. Love God (who first loved us). Love people. As simple as that sounds, it is the highest calling in the Kingdom of God. Prayer: Lord Jesus, You have called us to follow. Help us to be an accurate reflection of the love You have shown. Amen.
